

No matter how well you think you know a place, there are always new aspects to discover.

Use the treasure map to discover more of Settle.

✿ This symbol shows places of interest: it could be anything beautiful, quirky, historic, or fun...

Like all the best treasure maps, this one may hold a few mysteries. It's not drawn to scale and some of the features might not be exactly where you'd expect. Look carefully to find everything!

The Settle Tourist Information Centre offers help and information for visitors.

Please support friendly local businesses, cafes, pubs and shops. Many will be able to suggest where to find these treasures.

How many of these can you discover?

- Settle Folly, home to the Museum of North Craven Life, Folly Artisans Gallery & Folly Coffee House.
- Grade I and II listed buildings around the Market Place. Look for plaques commemorating Elgar's stay in Settle; Benjamin Waugh, founder of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children; and the wonderfully named Goad & Butchers solicitors.
- Victoria Hall, a Grade II listed original Victorian Music Hall
- Castleberg towering above Settle – make your way to the top & enjoy the view
- Settle Station, famous thanks to the Settle-Carlisle Railway, signal box & water tower
- Gallery on the Green, one of the world's smallest galleries – in a former telephone kiosk
- Settle Stories' Listening Gallery, the world's first listening gallery also in phone box (open 06.04.18)
- Ye Olde Naked Man Café – one of England's most photographed cafés
- Victoria Cave where evidence of prehistoric hunters was found – take care when visiting
- Settle Hydro – a reverse Archimedean screw system generating electricity for the community

Nearby:

- The Three Peaks: Pen-y-Ghent, Whernside & Ingleborough
- Hoffman Kiln
- Ribbleshead Viaduct Visitor Centre
- Courtyard Dairy, award-winning specialist cheesemongers

Download the list of 100 Different Ways to Discover the Dales from DalesDiscoveries.com
Please share your favourite places on social media #DalesDiscoveries